National School Lunch Week

There was a large potato inspired playlist this year for National School Lunch Week! The soundtrack spotlighted the wide variety of flavors, dishes, delivery options and tastes for students and served a plethora of potato dishes to satisfy their students.

Help Students Improved academic and physical performance with Potatoes!

We know that you strive to empower your students academically and physically. That means educating them about nutritional ways to improve their lives — in-class and on the field. Potatoes USA has teamed up with the educational specialists at Young Minds Inspired (YMI) to provide information about the important role potatoes can play in sports performance and training, as well as in academic achievement.

This new program includes two handouts available at ymiclassroom.com/potatoes:
